Curriculum Vitae

Name: James Gangur
Address: 49 McGill Rd. Girraween, NT 0836
Email: james.gangur@gmail.com
Mobile: 0477 005 274
Website: http://jagoly.net

Secondary Education
2010 – 2013: Completed Years 9-12 at Good Shepard Lutheran College

Vocational Education
2013:   Completed Certificate III in Information Technology at CDU
2014 – 2016: Studied Computer Programming and Game Development

Skills and Experience

- Extensive experience using modern high level C++ as well as lower level code
- Experienced graphics programmer using OpenGL
- Good understanding of the mathematics upon which 3D graphics systems are built
- Creator of the SQEE framework and related SQEE RPG game engine
- Several years of Linux system experience as both a user and a developer
- Experience with all areas of the graphics asset pipeline (tool development)
- Use of the CMake build system on both Linux and Windows
- Continuous integration using Travis and AppVeyor
- Version control using Git
- Knowledge of web technologies including HTML, CSS, Javascript, Python, PHP
- Basic experience designing and working with databases and SQL

Employment History

2012 - 2014: Technician and Sales Manager at Ategra / Palmerston Computers
- Assembly of computers and related equipment, software configuration
- Maintenance, repair and upgrades of existing equipment and installations
- Configuring networking equipment and advanced features/services
- Offering technical support on-site, over the phone and via email

2015: Stock Take at Cobham Aviation Services
- Itemising and collating stock in large warehouse and offices
- Documenting stock and reporting on requirements

Other Hobbies and Interests

- History of all kinds
- Economic and Political Studies
- Film and the Arts

Referees: Michael Parker – Business Owner at Ategra – 89 325 366

Please see my website for a showcase of some of my projects.